Valley United Way, Inc.

Form 990 - Organization's Mission or Most Significant Activities

Valley United Way's primary exempt purpose is to develop and provide financial assistance and community leadership to nonprofit human service organizations which meet identified community needs in Ansonia, Derby, Oxford, Seymour and Shelton, Connecticut.

Form 990, Part I, Line 6

Fund raising and volunteer projects for the needy in the community.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Achievement

donated items to needy agencies in the Valley. It also facilitates the human capital in the area by maintaining a Volunteer Center and on-line volunteer referral service which provides additional volunteer resources to the entire community.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Second Achievement

collaboratively to help meet the needs of the community through a variety of special activities including food and clothing drives and hands-on improvement projects. During the past year, the CVC also renovated the shelter for victims of domestic violence in the community, did a number of special painting and landscaping projects for a variety of local schools, and clothed 156 children for the new school year.

Its monthly clothing drive supports services for victims of domestic violence and the food drives support the area's food banks. The group also collects cell phones for victims of domestic violence and crochets blankets that are donated for use by counselors and police when conducting crisis intervention calls.

United Way also coordinates a similar Council for the Valley's high schools. All six of the local high schools participate in a cooperative venture to increase student volunteer involvement in meeting the needs of the community. United Way's own Youth Leadership program provides area high school students with a training program and opportunity to develop and use leadership skills. In addition to their training, the students put their skills to work in conducting a needs assessment and administering their own small grants program where they make small grants to area groups working on issues identified as priorities for area teens.

As a community facilitator, Valley United Way also hosts and provides support services for two major Valley institutions. The Valley Council for Health & Human Services is a collaborative group of the region's nonprofit health and human service providers. United Way is also a partner with the Council and the Greater Valley Chamber of Commerce in conducting the Leadership Greater Valley program which recruits, trains and places a diverse group of new volunteer leaders for the community. Valley United Way is also deeply committed to early childhood initiatives, and acts as a collaborative agency for the cities of Ansonia and Shelton on early childhood education initiatives called Discovery. It also serves as a collaborative agency and fiduciary agent for the Early Childhood Committee covering the Valley.

United Way also serves as the local coordinator for FEMA funding in the area helping to facilitate the coordination and distribution of FEMA funding in the Valley area.

These activities add significantly to the quality of life in the community
